DEDICATION

To one whose cheerfulness never changes and whose wit and lovable mannerisms have captured the hearts of the entire student body--

To one who easily commands a knowledge of a wide variety of subjects, yet has patience with the youngest learner--

To our own friend and teacher,

MISS ORA SUBLETTE

WE DEDICATE this, the 1944 edition of our year-book, THE JAMESTOWN ECHO.

FOREWORD

IN ORDER TO PROVIDE OURSELVES WITH A REMINDER OF OUR JOYOUS TIMES AS STUDENTS, IN ORDER TO KEEP US FROM EVER COMPLETELY LOSING CONTACT WITH THOSE WE HOLD DEAR, IN AN EFFORT TO PRESERVE THE SPIRIT OF FRIENDSHIP AND GOOD WILL WE NOW FEEL FOR EACH OTHER, WE HAVE COLLECTED AND COMPILED THE MATERIAL FOR THIS VOLUME. IN FUTURE YEARS, IN PEACEFUL TIMES, WE EXPECT THIS BOOK TO BE ONE OF OUR MOST PRIZED POSSESSIONS. HOPING IT WILL MEAN AS MUCH TO YOU AS TO US, WE PRESENT TO YOU THE JAMESTOWN ECHO OF 1944.

For our club projects this year we have done a lot of things. We conducted a shop where we sold school supplies, War Stamps, postage stamps, and we also had an Information Bureau containing information about every student in school. We conducted a mail-service to the nearby post office, collected lost articles, kept the stage clean and also published the school Annual this year.

We were enthusiastic over the progress we made thus far, and hope that the club in the future continues the work as we have.

The football team enjoyed a fairly successful season this year, considering the fact that we had no coach.

We played four games, winning one and losing three, two of which were lost by one touchdown.
